LUSITANIA IS IN PORT

Leviathan Cunarder Has Established New Record.

AVERAGE SPEED 22.87 KNOTS

New Ship Was Decked With Flags and Bunting as She Steamed Into Port and Presented Gay Appearance with Passengers Crowding Rails.

New York, Sept. 14.—A new steamship record between a European port and New York, was made by the Cunard line's new giant turbine ship, Friday.

The Lusitania left Queenstown, the nearest trans-Atlantic port to New York, at 12:10 p. m. Sunday and arrived at the Sandy Hook lightship at 8:43 a. m. (estimated) Friday, making the time for the trip five days, one hour and 33 miniutes. This is 5 hours and 50 minutes better than the previous Queenstown New York record of 5 days, 7 hours and 23 minutes held by the Lucania of the same line.

While the Lusitania has made a new record for the time a passenger is actually on board ship, she has not beaten the average speed per hour recorded, both by the Kaiser Wilhelm II, which has made 23.58 knots per hour from New York to Plymouth, and the Deutschland, with a record of 23.51 knots per hour to the city of Plymouth, having made better time the Lusitania's speed per hour on her maiden voyage is estimated at 22.87 knots per hour.

The new ship was decked with flags and bunting when she made her appearance off Sandy Hook, her four big red funnels lending color to the picture which was marred by the prevailing haze. A good sight of the beautiful vessel was had from shore for only a short while. Her passengers lined the railings and crowded the different decks of the large vessel, waving handkerchiefs and American and British flags.

The marine observatory stations on shore dipped their flags in salute, other vessels in the lower bay blew their whistles in greeting, and the Lusitania's blue ensign was constantly lowered and raised again in acknowledgement of the reception given her. She steamed slowly up the bay for the new Ambrose channel, dug especially for vessels of great draft, and which she will be the first to use in entering the port of New York.

EXPLOSION IN MINE.

Twenty Men Were Injured at Rock Springs, Wyom.

Rock Springs, Wyom., Sept. 14.—Forty men were injured, twenty seriously, by an explosion Thursday at the mouth of the third entry to mine No. 10, owned by the Union Pacific Coal company.

While a number of the injured are very badly burned, it is not expected that any of them will die.

The explosion was caused by lamps of the miners setting fire to coal dust that had been stirred up by runaway coal cars in their flight down a grade after jumping the track.

Georgia Fair Will Be Success.

Atlanta, Sept. 14.—J. J. Connor, of the State Agricultural Society of Georgia, and by virtue of his office president of the Georgia Fair association, is in the city, and states that the coming fair will see a dozen of the most prosperous counties in the state represented by agricultural displays. The association has offered three money prizes of $1,200, $1,000 and $800 for the first three prize-winning exhibits, and purses of $200 each for the next six to stimulate the interest in this direction.

Repented When Too Late.

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 14—Edward E. Degrattery, a private in the Fifteenth coast artillery, stationed at Fort Barrancas, committed suicide Thursday in a resort by swallowing a large dose of strychnine. After he had taken the poison he realized what he had done and begged the physicians who were summoned to save his life.

MADE STEADY PROGRESS.

Building Operations in the South and Southwest During August.

Baltimore, Sept. 14—In this week's issue of the Manufacturers' Record says:

Southern and southwestern building operations made steady progress last month, although the cost of material and of labor together with other conditions affected construction work to some extent in certain localities.

In Chattanooga, Tenn., 174 building permits were issued during the month representing an expenditure of $70,760.

Building permits issued at Nashville, Tenn., during the month call for an expenditure of $185,706. As compared with July, these figures show an increase of about $4,000. Sixty permits were issued in Austin, Tex., representing an expenditure of $69,270, of which amount about $55,000 are for residences. In Galveston 25 permits were issued representing an expenditure of $25,200, and making a total of 351 permits for the fiscal year and an expenditure in that period of $369,164. A statement of the building inspector of Baltimore shows that 121 permits were issued during August for improvements to cost $651,578, making a total for the eight months of 1907 of $4,555,498. The activity in building at Baltimore is matched by that at New Orleans, where several millioins of dollars are represented in buildings finished during the past year, now in course of construction or definitely planned. At Louisville, Ky., permits were issued during the year ended Aug. 31 to the number of 2,869, representing a total cost of $3,594,072.

BOOTH LEAVES ENGLAND.

Salvation Army Crowded Station to Witness His Deprture.

London, Sept. 14—Men and women wearing uniforms of the Salvation army filled the Euston railroad station here Friday morning, a large party having assembled to bid farewell to General Booth, who left London for Liverpool, where he will embark on the Allen line staemer Virginian for Quebecc, in which city the veteran commander will begin a campaign which is to extend over Canada and the United States. From the railroad car he handed the reporters a message as follows:

"Once more goodby, dear old England. I leave your shores on what I believe is the Master's business. As I contemplate the future I rely more than ever on the old panacea for lessening the ruins, in equalities and tyrannies of the world, namely, the renegeration of the individual by the power of God."

Commissioner Nichol, Colonel Lawley, and Brigadier Cox accompanied General Booth to Canada.

SWORD DUEL ARRANGED.

French Editor and Physician to Meet on Field of Honor.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 14.—A dispatch from St. Pierre, Miquelon, reports the probability of a duel between two prominent men in the French colony. The men are Dr. Dupuz, a physician, and Mazier, an editor. The trouble arose over an article in Mazier's newspapers, the result of political differences.

Dr. Dupuz has challenged Mazier to fight with swords, and the latter who is now ill, has promised to fight as soon as he gets well.

M. Mazier was mayor of St. Pierre for eighteen years and wears the cross of the Legion of Honor of France, with which he was decorated in 1889.

Steamer Sinks Schooner.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 14.—Having on board Governor Higgins, of Rhode Island, and the large official party from that state, who attended the Rhode Island day celebration at the Jamestown exposition this week, the Merchants and Miners' steamer Dorchester, which sailed from Norfolk for Providence late Thursday night, ran down and sunk in Craney island channel of the Elizabeth river the schooner Fannie S. Groverman, bound from Gloucester county, Virginia, to Norfolk. The Dorchester was uninjured. Four men narrowly escaped drowning.

FIRED AT AUTOMOBILE

Fright Given Gov. Beckham's Wife and Other Ladies.

THEIR MOTOR CAR HELD UP

By a Farmer, Who Denounced Fast Motoring, and Then Fired Several Shots as the Car Proceeded—Ladies Sought Shelter at Bottom of Car.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 14.—Dan Ruxter, a farmer, has been indicted on the charge of having discharged a pistol at an automobile containing Mrs. J. C. Beckham, wife of the governor of Kentucky, and a party of friends.

Mrs. Beckham, who was an Owensboro girl, was visiting friends. The farmers in this vicinity have been complaining of the speed of the machines on the highways and when the motor containing Mrs. Beckham reached a bridge on a much coveted thoroughfare, a man on horseback demanded that the chauffeur stop.

The horseman flourished a pistol over his horses "for the driver of the automoblie to wait several minutes' while he denounced the automobilists in bitter terms.

When the machine started he fired several shots and Mrs. Beckham and the other women dropped to the bottom of the car for protection.

NEW ORLEANS MAKES PROTEST.

Discrimination by Illinois Central and Other Roads Alleged.

Washington, Sept. 14.—In a petition filed Thursday with the interstate commerce commission, the New Orleans board of trade, the New Orleans Lumber Exporters' association and the National Lumber Exporters' association complain that the Illinois Central railroad and other railroads entering New Orleans are discriminating against the members of the complainants associations in allowing only ten days of storage on forest products and cotton seed products shipped on local bills of lading, while they allow unlimited storage periods on the same products shipped on through bills of lading from point of origin to point of destination.

The complainants ask the commission to make an order regulating fairly the matter of storage on local bills of lading and preventing the discrimination complained of, which is alleged to be of serious disadvantage to New Orleans.

CHARGE HIGH TREASON.

Fourteen Arrests Have Been Made at Coblenz, Prussia.

Coblenz, Prussia, Sept. 14.—Further arrests have been made in connection with the extensive betrayal of military secrets previously referred to in these dispatches.

There are now fourteen persons in custody, of whom twelve, including four civilians, one of whom, it is said, belongs to the nobility, will be charged in the closest confinement.

The two persons who will not be arraigned on the charge of high treason will appear as witnesses for the state, but they will not be released before the trial, which will probably be held in secret.

Many Skilled Workmen Laid Off.

Atlanta, Sept. 14.—One hundred and fifty men, four-fifths of whom are trained workers, men who have served a long apprenticeship and who are earning an excellent grade of pay every day, walked out of the Southern shops in South Atlanta Thursday afternoon, carrying with them an order of suspension for—how long none of them can even conjecture. The suspension came as a surprise to the workmen.

Causes Electric Sleep.

New York, Sept. 14.—Professor Stiphane LeDue, of the School of Medicine at Nantes, has discovered a method of causing electric sleep, says a Paris dispatch to the Times. It is claimed for the discovery that it will replace chloroform and other anaesthetics in all surgical operations.

BOARD VALUES SOUTHERN.

Figures Are $3,655,000 More than the Railroad Company's Returns.

Atlanta, Sept. 14.—The value of the Southern system in Georgia has been fixed at $18,539,336 by the board of arbitration, composed of Hon. Roland Ellis, of Macon, representing the road; Commissioner Stevens, representing the state, and Judge A. L. Miller, as umpire.

From this award Commissioner Stevens dissented, claiming that it was too low.

The figures were $3,655,383 over the returns of the company, and $7,960,664 under what the comptroller general had assessed the property.

A peculiar feature about the award is that the arbitrators fixed the value of the physical property of the system in Georgia at $15,066,139, or just $109,444 higher than the comptroller had assessed it, his figures being $14,956,695, while the road only returned the property at $12,052,956.

The franchise was awarded at $3,473,197, while it was returned at $2,831,997, and assessed at $11,543,305.

The total return of the corporation was $14,884,953, and it was assessed at $26,500,000.

LEAPED FROM WINDOW.

Waitress Risks High Fall to Escape Enraged Woman with Pistol.

Carutherville, Mo., Sept. 14.—Miss Lucy Logsden, aged 24 years, leaped headlong from a third story window of the Wilson Hotel here when Mrs Arch Feaman, revolver in hand, burst open the door of her husband's room and found the young woman in his company.

As Miss Logsden lay on the sidewalk below, fatally injured, the wife pocketed her revolver, declaring to the cowering man beside her:

"It wasn't you I was after. She has punished herself now for breaking up my home."

Mrs. Feaman was arrested, but was soon released on bond.

Miss Logsden, physicians say, cannot survive her injuries. Her left leg was broken and she suffred severe internal injuries.

Feaman, who is one of the most popular young men in Carutherville, has been separated for several months from his young wife. Trouble arose between them because of Miss Logsden, who is a waitress.

KILLED BY HER LOVER.

Woman Ran Through Streets With Throat Cut Until She Fell.

Reading, Pa., Sept. 14—Mrs. Gertrude A Clinton, wife of James Clinton, from whom she was separated, died Friday from injuries inflicted by Frank Palmer, her lover.

The woman ran half a square with the blood flowing from a cut in her throat until she fell exhausted from the loss of blood. She was thirty years old, and Palmer is 26. They had been living together until recently, but the woman left Palmer and he killed her because he believed she was about to become reconciled with her husband.

RAILROAD MAGNATES CHUMMY.

Harrison and Hill Walked Arm in Arm on Pine Street, New York.

New York, Sept. 14—The sight of E. H. Harriman and J. J. Hill, the two greatest rivals in the railroad world, walking down Pine street arm in arm, was witnessed this week.

The news, which has just got around, caused much wonder and talk in the financial district.

It is learned that the meeting was purely accidental and that as a matter of fact the personal relations of the great railroad rivals have always been of the most cordial kind.

To Fight for Port Rate.

Macon, Ga., Sept. 14.—At the monthly meeting of the Macon chamber of commerce, definite announcement was made by the members that they would enter a fight for the port rate upon the same grounds and principles that have been advanced by Atlanta in the fight. Committees have been given the matter and they will set to work at once. Macon business men will urge that they are entitled to their share of the reduction.

...NAWAY WIFE JILTED BY LOVER

Mrs. Sutton Left Home and Husband, Taking Latter's Money.

THEY LIVED NEAR LAKELAND

James Bradley Won Mrs. Sutton's Love and Then Got Her Husband's Money and Fled to Parts Unknown, Leaving the Woman Penniless.

The Jacksonville Metropolis of Thursday contained the following ...tastic and yet romantic story of the ...ishment of the wife of a well-...own South Florida man:

"W. J. Sutton, a well-known saw-mill ...n residing twelve miles from Lake-...nd, arrived here yesterday in search ...f his wife, whom he said had run ...way with a young man named James ...radley. "The jilted husband told his trouble ...o Detective Coleman and asked the ...fficer to assist him in locating his ...ife. Bradley was a stranger, and ...a fascinating, dashing young fellow. ...Sutton said that he had since ...learned that Bradley took his wife ...to Tampa the first day he came to ...Lakeland, and that he was very ...attentive to her. The husband said ...he had no reason to ever suspect ...her of any wrongdoing, and ...doubted when he learned the ...truth. He said that he kept his ...money at home in a trunk, and that ...his wife knew it.

"Sutton said that he married ...his wife when she was 15 years of ...age, and that they had always lived ...happily together. He can assign no ...reason for his action. He declares ...that he will never live with her again ...and that all he wants is his ...money.

Cures Hay Fever and Summer Cold.

A. J. Neuhaus, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

BITTEN BY A DOG.

Ernest Papy Brought Two Fighting Dogs to Town, and Was Bitten.

Ernest Papy, proprietor of the Brown House Barber Shop, received on Wednesday two fighting bull-dogs by express, and was highly elated over the possession of them.

These dogs are very vicious, and Thursday, while Papy was showing one of them off on the streets, permitting the animal to almost approach other innocent and helpless dogs on the sidewalk and then drawing him back by a chain, the canine got actually "mixed up" with another dog, also the property of the owner of the bull, and in an endeavor to separate the animals, he was bitten through the left hand.

Papy went to a physician who dressed the wound, but his hand is yet in bad condition.

It is a menace not only to the safety of other dogs, but to the public, to permit such vicious brutes to roam the streets unmuzzled, even considering that they are held in captive by chain, and this should be stopped at once.

She was quick to perceive of the excellent school and church advantages, and decided to move here in order to give her two sons these advantages. They will start to school here at the opening of the term.

Mrs. Mershon and family will be gladly welcomed to Gainesville, and it is to be hoped they will be well pleased.

MR. BRETT WAS HERE.

Popular Official of Holmes County Spent Day in Gainesville.

Gainesville was honored Wednesday by a visit from Hon. W. H. Brett of Bonifay, for many years the efficient clerk of the circuit court of Holmes county, and one of the most widely known and most influential men of West Florida.

Mr. Brett, it may be added, was a good and loyal friend to Gainesville in the long-to-be-remembered fight for the University of Florida site. While he was not aggressive, he did not hesitate to tell his friends what he thought about the matter, and his opinion carried great weight from his section. For this act of kindness and allegiance alone, the people of Gainesville cannot forget him.

Mr. Brett came here on business connected with the United States land office. He was shown every attention by the force, and during the day Register Chubb took him on a drive, visiting the University and other points of interest about the city. He expressed surprise that Gainesville should possess such charming places as he had the pleasure of viewing, and stated, upon his departure, that he was more in love with the city and the hospitality of its people than ever.

He is a young man of pleasant address, excellent thought and sincere determination, and will no doubt accomplish a great deal of good here in the cause of temperance and moral advancement.

Rev. Lambert is now in Norfolk, Va., but expects to return in a few days to this State, when he and Rev. Warren will take up the work of prohibition actively.

COTTON GROWERS HAD A BIG TIME

Meeting in White Springs Thursday Was a Grand Success.

A LARGE CROWD WAS PRESENT

Twenty-Two Out of Twenty-Nine Counties of the Belt Were Represented, and Enthusiasm Reigned Supreme—a Big Barbecue.

The meeting of the Sea Island Cotton Association of the Sea Island belts of Florida and Georgia, was held at White Springs on the 12th inst., and was one of the most largely attended and most enthusiastic meetings of the kind ever held.

F. Marion Ramsey of Wacahoota, one of the leading and most industrious and successful farmers of this section, was among those in attendance. He stated that there was a large crowd present, and that a great deal of good is expected from the coming together of the long staple growers.

Mr. Ramsey states that the meeting was opened by Harvie Jordan, president of the association, who delivered a most excellent address. He was followed by many others, and all talks were good, practical, and to the point.

At the noon hour dinner was announced ready, when Mr. Ramsey and the 1,999 other visitors went down to the grounds, where tables were spread under the immense shade oaks by the famous old Suwannee. A committee had prepared a most excellent feast of barbecued meat, and there were also many other good things, temptingly prepared, by the good women of White Springs and vicinity. Mr. Ramsey says there must have been at least 2,000 pounds of barbecued meat of all kinds, and it was cooked in a manner that was bound to make those present relish it. "I have been to many a barbecue," he said, "and always thought I knew what a piece of barbecued meat was, but those fellows in Hamilton got too much of me, for their part of the work was perfect in every respect. I was not particularly hungry until I struck the tables, and I can say in all sincerity that I was then never hungrier in my life. I never saw such a quantity of such a diversity of barbecued meat in my life, and those Hamilton county fellows, in their own hospitable manner, made us feel in reality that we were welcome to all they had."

Mr. Ramsey believes that this convention will prove of great benefit to the cotton growers of the long staple territory. There were many good things said in the way of suggestions, and those present listened with the greatest earnestness to the utterances of each speaker.

Out of the twenty-nine counties in Florida and Georgia growing the Sea Island cotton, twenty-two were represented by delegates, which goes to show that the tendency toward protection of the grower is drifting the grower's way.

Among other representatives from Alachua county were J. R. Williams, Chas. W. Stevens, J. Richard and Mr. Matthews of Alachua, and Thos. Blanton, Capt. Theo. Willard and Thos. Price of High Springs.

Mrs. Wyatt to Sutherland.

Mrs. M. J. Wyatt, for many years a popular keeper of a boarding house in this city, and who has many friends here, expects to leave today for Sutherland, where she is matron of the Southern College, the Methodist State college.

Mrs. Wyatt has spent the summer delightfully with Mrs. M. A. Whetstone, East Union street, and during her vacation has had the pleasure of meeting many of her old friends.

Mrs. Wyatt is an ideal caterer, and proved highly satisfactory at the college. She is a refined, Christian lady, and her influence in this direction is valued at the Sutherland college. Friends are sure that she will have a pleasant term, but trust to see her return to Gainesville in the spring.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because [illegible] insidious. [illegible] heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney trouble. If allowed to advance the kidneys poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

The Clarks in Atlanta.

A letter has been received from Hon. Frank Clark in Atlanta, directing that his paper be changed from Austell, Ga., to Atlanta.

Col. Clark states that at the time he wrote the letter his family were all with him, but would soon be separated, at least for the scholastic year.

Edward will leave in a day or two for his last year in the dental college in Baltimore. The young ladies of the family will enter school in Western Maryland, and Frank, Jr., will enter the law department of the University of Georgia at Athens.

Col. Clark states that the madame and himself do not expect to reach home before October 1. He is in excellent health, and sends regards to inquiring friends.

Grave Yard Working.

There will be a grave yard working at Antioch church on Thursday, October 3rd, 1907. Everyone, especially those who have friends buried there, are invited to be present with hoe, rake and broom and a basket full of dinner, and a jug of water, that you may be willing to stay and work all day. Come or send someone in your place, or money that we can put a man in your place.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. Beach, Midland, City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

Mrs. J. B. Chapin Met Death in Automobile Accident in Lynn, Mass.

The many friends of Mrs. J. B. Chapin of Lynn, Mass., will be pained to learn of her death on the 12th inst., as the result of an automobile accident.

Mrs. Chapin visited her husband's family here, Dr. and Mrs. Chapin, in the winter of 1904-5, and made friends of all who met her.

The sympathy of all who knew and loved her goes out to the family in their sorrow.

Colson Attends a Picnic.

From Saturday's Daily Sun.

Tax Assessor W. W. Colson has gone to Gulf Hammock, where yesterday he attended a big barbecue and fish fry. This function was held in the interest of good roads, good government, etc., and was no doubt largely attended, as the people of Levy county are deeply interested at this time in hard roads, having caught the fever. They already have one of the most consistently governed counties in Florida, hence it is needless to advocate that measure further, but the good people who were promoters of this enterprise called it a good roads and good government meeting.

Mr. Colson is possessed of that genial disposition which will always make friends and make him feel at home, hence it is needless to assure his friends that he enjoyed the day.

Some Fine Dogs.

Gainesville will soon become known as the mecca for pedigreed dogs. Already, it may be said that there are more fine canines in this city and section than in any other section of the State, and the number is increasing gradually.

The last shipment of fine dogs arrived Wednesday, and comprised two pedigreed pointers from the Pennsylvania Kennels. One of the animals belonged to Captain J. Maxey Dell, while the other was the property of W. R. McKinstry.

The dogs are only a year old, and are practically ready for the field. Dog fanciers have seen them, and admired them greatly.

Messrs. Dell and McKinstry are to be congratulated upon their new possessions.

A Delightful Surprise.

There was a delightful surprise party Thursday evening, when friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Weston visited the home of L. L. Hill, North University street, where Mr. and Mrs. Weston are residing.

Notwithstanding that the occasion was one of surprise, Mr. and Mrs. Weston were equal to the occasion, and appreciated the visit of the fifteen young people who came to pay their compliments.

The evening was passed in a manner appropriate to the occasion, and incidentally refreshments were served, which were greatly enjoyed.

She Found Relief.

If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas: "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC ULCERS

Chronic Ulcers are the result of a deeply polluted and foul blood supply. The blood is filled with impurities and germs which are being constantly fed into the place through the circulation, until all the surrounding flesh becomes diseased and the sore an obstinate and permanent trouble. Every symptom of an old ulcer suggests pollution; the discharge, the red, angry looking flesh, the inflammation and discoloration of surrounding parts, all show that the ulcer is prevented from healing by the constant draining through it of impurities from the blood. This impure condition of the blood may be hereditary, or it may be the remains of some constitutional disease, or the effects of a long spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system, or the absorption of the refuse of the body which has not been properly expelled through the natural channels. But whatever the cause, the blood is so weakened and polluted that it does not properly nourish and strengthen the place, and the sore cannot heal. Salves, plasters, lotions, etc., may keep the sore or ulcer clean, relieve pain, and perhaps reduce inflammation, but they never permanently heal them because they do not reach the blood. S. S. S. goes down to the very fountain-head of the trouble, drives out all poisons and germs, builds up the weak, sluggish blood, gives energy and vitality to the system, and by sending a fresh, healthy stream of blood to the affected parts, allows the ulcer to heal naturally and permanently. Nothing equals inherited taints like S. S. S. It cleanses the circulation of every trace of hereditary disease or impurity, and those who have suffered and doctored for years will experience good results as soon as the system is influenced by S. S. S. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free to all who write.

STATE PRINTING.

The Board of State Institutions is advertising for bids on the State printing for the next two years, and have notified all parties desiring to bid on same to have their figures submitted to the board not later than September 25th, at which time the board will open the bids and award the contracts.

The advertisement of the board states that a certified check for ten thousand dollars must be submitted with bids for one class of the work, and a certified check for two thousand and five hundred dollars submitted with bids for the other class.

In the opinion of The Evening News the Board of State Institutions has made a mistake in this matter. We have been watching for this notice for some weeks but had hoped this objectionable feature would not be found in the requirements this year. In fact, so much has been said, in the public prints and elsewhere, against this clause and so much dissatisfaction created heretofore by it that we did not think that the board would blunder again in this respect.

It has been charged heretofore that these checks were made a condition of the bid for the sole purpose of shutting out certain bidders and giving the work to favored ones. We do not believe these charges are true, but the refusal of the board to abolish this certified check requirement, or lower the amount of the check, will not tend to do away with the suspicions which have been aroused by former actions of the board.

It is perhaps necessary to make the bidders deposit something in the shape of collateral with their bids. The board ought to have some assurance when a bid is accepted that the contractor will carry out the work in a manner that will be satisfactory to the board, but we find on reading the advertisement that the successful bidder is required to furnish a bond of twenty thousand dollars for one class of the work, and five thousand dollars for the other.

The real purpose for requiring a deposit with the bid is to guarantee the board that the successful bidder will make the necessary bond, and not that he will do the work satisfactorily, and in our opinion the sum of ten thousand dollars required to be deposited with the bid for this purpose is entirely out of reason. There are thousands of good men in this State who could make a bond for a hundred thousand dollars but who could not give a certified check for five thousand, and the members of the board of State Institutions know this as well as we do.

The conditions under which the bids for the State printing are to be received absolutely shut out the little man, and quite a number of the big men in the printing business in this State, and we predict these "little" men are going to be heard from in no uncertain terms.

For fear some one may think we have a personal interest in the matter it might not be out of place to state that The Evening News has no intention of bidding on any of this printing.—Pensacola News.

The disrespectful and disgusting features brought into the meeting that awarded the contract in August two years ago, when a member threatened and came pretty near putting his fist onto Hilson's nose while the Governor waived his hand as a warning to Hilson to be respectful and polite, will not be a part of the proceeding on this occasion, which will be refreshing, even though bidders be frozen out again. Let 'er go Gallagher.—Tallahassee True Democrat.

SALT LAKE CITY.

A commercial man representing a Detroit, Mich., stove manufacturing firm, writes as follows concerning the City of the Saints and its people:

"Gentlemen—Pursuant to your request that I give you my opinion of the cities and towns I visited as I proceed Westward, I beg to hand you herewith my thoughts of Salt Lake City, her business enterprises, and her people: this being my first stop of any consequence in the heart of the Rockies.

"Up where the cities and towns are 4,000 feet or more above the sea; where the glories of the everlasting snows are ever present and thrill with their magic splendor and exhilarate with their cooling breezes; up toward the richly treasure-laden mountains where the miner has already found and brought to the surface millions of dollars' worth of ore; up to the exalted summits where the rich and poor have an opportunity alike and mankind seems of one great family; to such a place have I come, for the first time in my life, to visit the thrifty and growing metropolis of Utah, a city rich and favored by nature, of nearly 85,000 people, built in sight of the Great Salt Lake, and surrounded by rich and fertile fields. The autumn days are here with all their glory of climate and glow of the harvest crops. The mornings and evenings are delightfully cool; the days most perfect with clear sunshine and an atmosphere pure and exhilarating.

"The first settlement was made in Salt Lake City by the Mormons, under the leadership of that great colonizer and president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Brigham Young, who by his marvelous genius has erected in the very heart of the Rocky Mountains a city which is destined to ever remain as a monument of his greatness. It seems too bad to think that a man of such wonderful ability as he possessed could not live to see the completion of the great work which he laid out, particularly of the Mormon Temple, which is a marvel of beauty, and which was forty years under construction. He was permitted to plan and lay out the work, but future generations, of necessity, were to complete it, and how well this work has been carried forward in each and every department which he was instrumental in organizing, can only be appreciated by paying this people a visit, and seeing what enterprise and suffering have accomplished in so short a time.

"In the promptness and liberality of the Mormon people there is something decidedly pleasing. Their manner is at once affable and impressive, simple and courteous, showing no signs of dogmatism (reports to the contrary notwithstanding), impressing the stranger with a sense of power. In the whole mountain range I see a trace of their genius; their cities and towns have the best and most up-to-date educational facilities, the influence of which is reflected in the lives and living of the people. The men are of strong physique, quiet mannered and intelligent. The ladies sweet-faced, extremely bright and home-loving, whose sole ambition seems to be making a home pleasant for those they love, as may be seen by their enticing door-yards; comfortable and cozy homes; the well-kept lawns and thrifty trees, where can be heard the prattle of babes and the merry laughter of children at play.

"It has been my privilege while here to visit the heads of the principal mercantile establishments, some of which were established by Brigham Young himself. In each instance these men show leadership, yet withal have the characteristic Mormon liberality and manner which at once win for them the confidence and respect of the visitors.

"Time will not permit me to write you further on what I have seen here, nad I can only say in conclusion that to visit this most delightful summer resort and its God fearing people, is to fall in love with them.

"Tourists from all over the world visit this city and are always delighted. In the months when nature is thriving, the fields and trees here are bright and green, flowers bloom, and the welcome which greets the visitor is toned with a delicious flavor. The wide and clean streets of the city, the pretty park with its beautiful drives, the shady retreats, the sidewalks lined with thrifty trees; the handsome public buildings, public reading room and library; the glorious scenery of the Wasatch mountains and hills surrounding in the distance, with meadows and fields intervening, make the city one of the most pleasant and ideal spots for those desiring to get away from the steady grind of city life and rest near nature, and commune with nature's God.

"I shall ever remember this, my first visit to Salt Lake City."

THE PACIFIC COAST TROUBLE.

There is a feature of retributive justice in the news from British Columbia last week. The Canadian government has just been treated to the biggest sort of a race riot on the Pacific coast, directed impartially toward all the Orientals who go toward making up the population of the great Northwest Territory.

One Saturday night one week ago the inhabitants of Bellingham, British Columbia, arose in their might and started a riot for the extirpation of a large colony of Hindoo coolies who lived in that section. It may be news to the average American to know that there are colonies of East Indians living on the continent, but such is the case. They are brought from India under contract to work and pay for their passage money. They are settled in the British colonies and hired out, where their work is needed, to virtually slavery. It takes about five years' work to pay for their passage, and at the end of that time they are free to go back to India or settle in the country. These were the people against whom the rioters arose. They chased them over to the American side of the line and most of the Hindoos came without waiting for the formality of passports.

Then on Sunday night the wave of anti-orientalism spread to Vancouver, and the residents wrecked the Chinese and Japanese quarters. The riot was marked with all brutality that characterizes a mob anywhere. The Japanese government has already demanded apologies and indemnities, and the mayor of Vancouver, being elected by the votes of the residents, has declined to furnish either. So the British government is decidedly "up against it," and the London papers that have been inveighing against the brutality of the anti-Japanese riots in San Francisco are hard put to it to find an excuse for their own people who have been guilty of the same sort of an outbreak. It merely shows that populations are much alike the world over, and the Oriental is not calibrated to mix with the white man.

THE IMMUNITY CASE.

There is a fight brewing that will be worth watching between the administration as represented by President Roosevelt and the Department of Justice and Judge R. M. Landis of Chicago. It is over the immunity plea of the Chicago and Alton railroad.

It will be remembered with little effort that Judge Landis was the man who imposed the $29,240,000 fine on the Standard Oil Company for taking rebates from the Chicago and Alton road. It was largely by the testimony of the Alton officials, coupled with the books of the company which were turned over to the Government, that the conviction of the Standard was secured. The officials of the Alton claimed that they had secured immunity from prosecution by aiding the Government, turning State's evidence, as it were. Judge Landis took a different view of the matter, and the road was about to be prosecuted for paying rebates when special attorney Sims, the counsel for the Government in the case, received a letter from Washington directing him flatly to grant the immunity. It seems that neither Mr. Sims nor the Judge was in favor of letting the case go in this slipshod way, and the whole matter has been held over to the 24th of this month, when the two sides will have their innings in court.

This is a matter that is more important than it seems. It is not every day that a Federal official arises and defies the President. But this virtually is what Judge Landis has done. It remains to be seen which is the stronger, the Judge or the President. The controversy has already brought Judge Landis into the public eye, much as Folk of Missouri was brought, and it would not be surprising if the matter developed into a national fight that would make Landis a Presidential possibility when the nominating convention meets.

The Department of Justice at Washington has appointed Col. Emmett Wilson of Pensacola to the office of district attorney of the Northern District of Florida, which office was recently made vacant by the appointment of District Attorney Sheppard to the United States judgeship. While the appointment is a temporary one, pending the naming of a permanent successor to Judge Sheppard, it is quite an honor to Col. Wilson, who is a young man and who has a wide acquaintance throughout the western section of the State.

The editor of Success declares that many a man has been kept from performing a disgraceful criminal act by the thought that somebody loved him, believed in him, and trusted in him.

The famous Cliff House at San Francisco has been burned down. Well, it could not have been a much hotter time than the old place has often seen before.

COWPEAS.

Prof. A. M. Soule, in The Southern Farm Magazine of Baltimore for September, says:

"Cowpeas provide one of the finest forms of hay for use in the South. Experiments have demonstrated that within reasonable limits cowpeas can be substituted for expensive concentrates like wheat bran and cottonseed meal. For instance, as much as 10 pounds of finely chopped cowpea hay may be made to replace six pounds of wheat bran. As cowpeas can be grown on practically every farm and gather their nitrogen from the air, and even when cut for hay leave 30 to 40 pounds of nitrogen on each acre of land in the roots, stubble and fallen leaves, it is a crop of vast economical importance. The cowpea is also a splendid smother crop and holds weeds in check very effectively. It has a very fine effect on the physical condition of the soil, bringing it into an ideal State for succeeding crops. There are some drawbacks to using cowpeas for hay, as the crop is difficult to cure; but where wooden triangles of even rough construction not over two feet high are used underneath the stocks and hay caps provided, excellent hay can be made even in a very unfavorable season, as the crop can be cut under these conditions in a semi-green state and will cure out perfectly."

Southern cotton mills show no signs of having lost their attractiveness as investments, says The Wall Street Journal. On the contrary, enlargement of plants, erection of new mills and installation of more machinery are the features of the news coming from that quarter. With raw cotton at present prices, more money will go into cotton mills, because this is still the chief manufacturing industry in which Southern enterprise feels itself to be master. But the growth of the industry has brought with it various other industrial problems, including such as economies in the use of power and the training of talent for their own needs. The problem of power economy is receiving solution by the use of electrical power on water courses and in nearby localities. The machinery of whole towns is run in this way. In the training of young men for a career in the mills, the mechanical colleges are doing much that will go far to equip Southern cotton manufacturing with a superior class of men.

Both the National Farmers' Union and the Southern Cotton Association have placed a minimum price of 15 cents on this year's cotton crop. In this connection The DeFuniak Springs Breeze says: "The Farmers' Union, at their annual meeting in Hot Springs last week, fixed upon 15 cents as the minimum price for cotton this year, and will endeavor to bring the price up to that notch, but it is very doubtful if they succeed, though they may do much toward pushing up the price somewhat. There is no question but what the farmers could control the crop if they were in shape to hold it, which they are not. Mind you, we are not urging the farmers to rush their cotton on the market, but we are doubtful of the wisdom of holding too long."

Florida students of the various colleges and institutions of learning throughout the country are again returning to their studies, after a pleasant vacation spent with "home-folks" and friends. Some seem to think—and rightly, too—that too many leave the State in search of an education when Florida has a number of the best schools and colleges in the South, or in the entire country for that matter, located within her borders, and moreover, every dollar spent with the schools of the State adds that much to their strength for good and to the capital of the commonwealth.

Many of the county schools will open for the fall term during the next two or three weeks, and it is the duty of parents to see that all children of school age are started promptly the opening day. No child should be deprived of the advantages of an education, as in many instances neglect on the part of the parents or guardians in properly preparing children for attendance at school is the cause of their aversion to matters educational as they grow older.

Most people's tongues are no more than rip-saws run through character. In that case the wood is better than the saw.

J. D. STRINGFELLOW SUED FOR DAMAGES

New York Firm Selected Opportunity to Serve Papers on Him.

MAN WAS IN NEW YORK CITY

When it Was Ascertained That He Was Visiting the American Metropolis the Firm Against Whom He Had Secured Judgment Sued for Slander.

Information comes from New York to the effect that J. D. Stringfellow, a well-known citizen and trucker of this city, has been served with papers embodying a suit for damages in the supreme court of the City of New York. The allegation is slander.

Mr. Stringfellow has been in New York for some time, and when Vaughn & Co. ascertained that he was visiting the city, the papers were served.

Whether or not Vaughn & Co., who are extensive seed dealers well known throughout this section, will make any capital out of this suit yet remains to be seen. Mr. Stringfellow's friends here look upon the case as a joke.

It will be remembered that at the last term of the circuit court Mr. Stringfellow was the prosecutor in a suit for damages against the Vaughn Seed Store, his charge being a failure of crop, and his allegation that the defendant company had supplied him with inferior seed. The suit was for $1,950, and a judgment was rendered by the firm for $950.

Nothing more was thought of this case here, as it had been settled in regular form by law. However, the Vaughn Seed Store did not seem satisfied, as they estimated the damage to their goods by the jury sustaining Mr. Stringfellow, and the minute they found out that he was in New York the necessary papers were served, and he was summoned to appear in court.

It is not known just what the disposition of the case amounted to, but it is supposed that Mr. Stringfellow gave bond, and will appear to answer the charges at the proper time.

SEA ISLAND COTTON.

Buyers Talking of Thirty Cents, But No Price Yet Decided Upon.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 14.—In view of the smallness of the receipts of Sea Island cotton prices are nominal, and have reference principally to the old crop. The chief feature was inquiry as to the size of the crop. The buying was confined largely to type sales. Chairman Tucker states that the school opened a couple of weeks ago with an enrollment of fifty-five, which will be increased to about seventy-five within the next two weeks. DICKINSON RAKES 'EM.

Reminds Delinquents That They Must Pay Up or Stand Consequences.

The people of Alachua county elected Capt. W. D. Dickinson as tax collector of Alachua county to do his duty, and he is doing it. That is all that could be expected of any man.

Captain Dickinson, having completed his duties in the matter of real property, is now looking after the fellow who is delinquent in the payment of taxes on his personal effects, and is pushing matters right well when it comes to collecting.

"You know I must collect these taxes," remarked Captain Dickinson Saturday, "but I can's blame a fellow much for forgetting to pay them. There was a time when I was not tax collector, and I used to forget my personal taxes. It has been many a time the collector has jogged my memory that I was in arrears.

"It is not the fault of the fellow who owns the personal property that he must be reminded of his arrears. It is just a plain act of overlooking the matter, which in the majority of instances is very small. The fellow who owns a whole lot of personal property, and his personal taxes run high, will set aside a page in his memorandum book and will attend to it, but ninety-five per cent of the ordinary fellows, who owns his little home and a few hundred dollars worth of property, does not think to meet his obligation for personal tax."

Collector Dickinson states that he has liberal responses to the postal cards he is mailing reminding delinquents of personal taxes, all of which have kept him busy for the past few days.

OUR NATIONAL DANGER.

Time to Cry a Halt Before a Panic Comes.

The business spirit is crushing out the sweeter element of home life. We are in danger of a great commercial decline, because men, as a whole, think only of getting wealth.

There are thousands, both men and women, who do not take time to eat properly. They rush through life, and as a result we have an age of indigestion, nervousness, irritability, sleepless nights, and morose disposition.

With the discovery of Mi-o-na tablets, there is no longer any excuse for one to have ill health from stomach weakness.

Mi-o-na strengthens the walls of the stomach, stimulates secretion of the digestive juices, regulates the liver and restores muscular contraction to the intentines and bowels, so no laxative is needed.

Sick headaches, palpitation, bad taste in the mouth, yellow skin, irritability, coated tongue and melancholy are a few of the many distressing results of indigestion. Mi-o-na never fails to dispel all these troubles.

J. W. McCollum & Co. sell Mi-o-na in 50-cent boxes, and guarantee to refund the money if the remedy does not give complete satisfaction.

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT.

Young Man by Name of Corbett Up for Toting Gun But Released.

A young white man by the name of Corbett, who was the prosecuting witness in the case of the city vs. B. Beville, charged with selling liquor without a license, was arraigned in mayor's court himself Saturday morning upon a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Corbett was arrested by Marshal Arnow, who found an ugly-looking pistol in his possession.

When arraigned in court Saturday morning it was explained by Officer Kite that Corbett had been deputized to do special police work on Friday night, hence he was released.

The numerous friends here of Prof. Sellards wish him much happiness in his married life.

Prof. and Mrs. Sellards will reside in Tallahassee.

ST. AUGUSTINE MISSION.

School Has Grown Under Direction of Rev. Speight.

From Sunday's Daily Sun.

The school of St. Augustine's Episcopal Mission in this city opened its thirteenth school year the first Monday in this month, with the largest enrollment it has ever enjoyed at its opening. The school is well organized by Rev. J. Speight, the principal teacher, and at the close of the second week's work much interest and earnestness are manifested by teachers and pupils, to make the school a success.

This mission is an important factor in lifting the colored people of this community to higher planes of living, developing in them moral and Christian character along with the literary work.

The continual growth of the school is making difficult for the teachers to provide sufficient room to accommodate the pupils in the chapel, where divine services are held. Therefore, the members of the mission are very fortunate to secure the splendid church building, formerly occupied by the members of Holy Trinity church. They are now earnestly appealing to the charity of the citizens to aid them in raising money to transfer the building to their lot at the corner of Church and Grove streets. This effort presents to the friends of humanity an opportunity to help a good and worthy cause.

At the services which will be held in the chapel this morning at half past 10 o'clock, offerings will be made to accomplish this much needed work. All are cordially invited to attend the services.

M'INTOSH LOST HIS WAD.

Lost Twenty Dollars from Pocket While He Was at Work.

B. B. McIntosh, a mechanic of this city who has been employed in a certain mill here, is twenty dollars poorer on account of carrying money in his pockets, as the report goes.

A friend of Mr. McIntosh states that while he was at work on Thursday or Friday somebody entered his locker in which he kept his clothes and took from his pocket book which he had with him, twenty dollars. The robbery is a mystery as Mr. McIntosh evidently has no suspicion as he has resigned his position, as understood, and will seek employment elsewhere.

Station School Opens.

The opening of the Station school, which was to have been on the 10th inst., has been postponed until Monday, the 23rd inst., on account of the fact that a number of the pupils are now busy and will not have the opportunity to attend school before later.

The Station school is one of the best country schools in the county and it goes without saying that the coming term will be a successful one.

COMMISSION QUIT INVESTIGATION JOB

Important Witnesses Who Could Throw Light on Subject

ARE OUT OF THE STATE

Four Witnesses, Three of Whom Were Former Members of the Board of Internal Trustees, Have Given Commission 22—Will Close up Soon.

Hon. Syd L. Carter, member of the Internal Improvement Fund investigating committee who has been in Tallahassee for the past few weeks at work with the other members of the commission on this special work, has returned to his home in this city.

Judge Carter was sought by the representative of The Sun to ascertain if possible why the commission had virtually quit their assignments without making a final report. He found the genial Judge in his usual good humor, with his feet pocked up a few inches above his head reading a newspaper, and was cordially welcomed.

When the mission of the visit was explained, and Judge Carter was asked to explain why the commission had so evidently quit without making its final report, Judge Carter said:

"The work of the commission is practically finished. The report was not signed and filed on account of absence of three or four former trustees, the testimony of whom it was deemed necessary to secure in order to make the investigation complete. These gentlemen are absent from the State and as soon as they return the testimony will be completed, and the testimony and report will be closed up in a day or two."

Judge Carter would not say anything further than the commission would meet as soon as the absent witnesses would return, and were willing to give their testimony. He would not divulge their names, but it is known that Former Governor Bloxham, Former Governor Fleming and Congressman Lamar, and Col. Colonel A. Gunn, for many years State selecting agent of the State lands, and out of the State, and that the commission is waiting for their testimony. The three former were members of the board of trustees.

JONESVILLE HAPPENINGS.

Death of An Infant—Enjoyable Fish Fry—Personal Notes.

Jonesville, Sept. 12.—T. R. Pickett has returned from Live Oak, where he went to visit his sons, Geo. E. and A. G. Pickett. Geo. E. accompanied his father home.

W. L. Pickett went to Live Oak yesterday afternoon.

Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. A. J. Johnson. Mr. Johnson has taught here before, and judging the future by the past, we are sure we will have some excellent work done.

Mrs. W. W. Spires is at Newberry, where her daughter, Mrs. T. B. Kirby, is very ill. We hope she will soon recover.

Mrs. W. J. Hamilton has returned to her home from Forest Grove, where she has been with her daughter, Mrs. Knight, who is suffering with rheumatism.

These Sunday nights are very dark, and we hear that one young man, although no smoker, has decided to carry matches along with him on account of the trees which will grow near the road.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kirby was laid to rest in Jonesville cemetery on last Sunday morning. Friends extend heartfelt sympathy.

Fish fryes are getting to be very common over here, and the one last Thursday seems to have been the best yet. We are looking forward to another one, and hope it will not be far distant.

TO TAKE DRASTIC ACTION.

Mexican Government Will Exile Leaders Who Foment Strikes.

Mexico City, Sept. 13.—Owing to the recent numerous strikes of mill hands and railroad operatives throughout Mexico, the government has decided to take drastic action against leaders and agitators in such cases where the men are advised to walk out for trivial causes as has been alleged in the late strikes.

If the government is convinced that a strike is a mere pretext to attain ascendency over employers, the striking workmen and the leaders will be exiled to the island of Las Tres Marias in the Pacific ocean 100 miles off the coast of the Tepic territory. LETTER FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

President Roosevelt Taking Deep Interest in Taft Campaign.

CABINET TO BE OVERHAULED

Root, Metcalf, Bonaparte and Wilson Likely to Leave Before Next National Election—Government Trying to Keep Out Chinese and Japs.

Special Correspondence The Daily Sun.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 11.—The announcement that Theodore E. Burton of Ohio will be a mayoralty candidate against Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland shows that President Roosevelt himself has taken a deep interest in the Taft campaign for the Presidential nomination by the Republican party. Mr. Burton is an avowed enemy of Senators Foraker and Dick of Ohio, and wants to succeed one of the two to the Senate, and the mayoralty of Cleveland appears to afford the necessary stepping stone. Moreover, Burton is a firm supporter of Roosevelt and Taft, and if he is victorious over Johnson it would be construed as in favor of the Taft cause. As Cleveland is rich in patronage it would give him immense prestige in that locality and, perhaps, in the western part of the State—Dick's precinct. If Foraker and Dick fight him they can easily be accused of party disloyalty, and if they win the battle, Taft, and not he, would receive the benefits. On the face of it, it would appear that Roosevelt has executed a master stroke, for it is difficult to see how the administration can lose in Ohio. Of course, it is absolutely essential that Taft wins out in his own State if he is to have a chance in the general election.

The radical sentiment of the country has developed two champions of the people—Roosevelt and Bryan. Should Roosevelt run he would undoubtedly go into the White House for another term by a huge majority, smashing all records. But with Roosevelt excluded, who of the others loom as large on the political horizon? No one but Bryan, for he alone represents the people's ideas and ideals, the so-called radicalism. Radicalism is dominant throughout the country, and the sane, conservative man would stand no chance whatsoever at present as opposed to the two leading exponents of the popular will.

It is rumored that the cabinet of President Roosevelt is to be thoroughly overhauled and many changes are likely to be made. It is said that Root, Metcalf, Bonaparte and Wilson are likely to leave before the next National campaign. Root is apt to go because, in the President's activities in favor of Taft, he sees his ambition for a turn at the helm of State vanishing, and then there is more money to be made in connection with corporation law than in the administration portfolio. Bonaparte has had, and is likely to have, friction with the President, especially over the Alton case. It is said the President is in favor of the immunity bath for the railroad in question, while Bonaparte is not in sympathy with that program. Metcalf and Wilson will probably drop out on political grounds. So far rumor has not undertaken to mention the probable successors.

Criminal prosecution of strikers for tampering with the wires has been instituted in Chicago by the Western Union Telegraph Company. The fight still appears to be a desperate one between the striking operators and the companies, with the end not yet in sight.

The Government is exerting its utmost efforts to prevent the illegal entry of Chinese and Japanese into this country. Only recently nearly one thousand Japanese were detected in an attempt to enter the country from Hawaii through British Columbia, and it required the utmost vigilance to prevented their ingress. It is also reported that the Japanese are terrorizing and pillaging Alaskan towns, owing to the inadequate protection furnished by the revenue cutter fleet of the United States.

The new 20,000-ton battleship is to be named the New York, and the cruiser of that name, which was prominently identified with the Santiago episode, is to be renamed the Saratoga, the vessel of the latter name having been ordered dropped from the naval list.

In many quarters it has been conjectured that the sending of the battleship fleet to the Pacific means that two fleets will eventually be created—one for the Atlantic and one for the Pacific—in other words, the immediate expansion of our navy. Such guesses, however, are set at rest by the statements at the Navy Department that the contemplated movement does not have in view either the division of the present magnificent fleet or the creation of a new one. On the contrary, however, it is deemed better to have one perfectly drilled and better controlled fleet than two separate fleets. Such a fleet, having demonstrated its mobility and effectiveness, will be speedily recalled to the Atlantic coast, where its chief duty is, and the coast cities of the United States on the Atlantic coast may, therefore, put aside their fears. No decision has as yet been reached as to how the fleet shall return to the Eastern coast.

A CLEVER POEM.

Forest Kelley Tells a Thing or Two About Men and Old Shoes.

Forest Kelley, the clever young son of Dr. J. L. Kelley, who is assisting his father in the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction, occasionally has a few moments to spare, which he devotes to literature of his own composition, and this is his last effort, which is very good:

Man and His Shoes.

How much a man is like his shoes—
For instance, both a sole may lose;
Both have been tanned; both are made tight
By cobblers; both get left and right;
Both need a mate to be complete,
And both are made to go on feet.
They both need heeling, oft are sold,
And both, in time, will turn to mould.
With shoes, the last is first,
And with man, the first shall be the last.
When shoes wear out they are mended new;
When men wear out, they are men dead, too.
They both are trod upon, nothing loath;
Both have their ties, and both incline.
When polished, in the world to shine.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Drown Trouble in a Song.

I.

What to Trouble are owin'?
You've got your time an' chance:
Hear that fiddle goin'?
Hop in there, an' dance!
Don't let old Trouble lead you
The rocky way along:
Smile, he'll never heed you—
Drown him in a song!

II.

They are not worth the winnin'—
The shadows o' the night;
When first the world went spinnin',
The livin' word was "Light!"
So light the lamps, an' singin'
Where thick the troubles throng,
Set all the bells a-ringin'—
Drown Trouble in a song!

News from Greater Billville.

Some of our preachers of prosperity have rolled up their sleeves and gone to work.

We are now "Greater Billville," having annexed 'Possum Trot and Jinks' millpond.

A daily paper is spoken of for our town. We can understand how an editor can starve once a week, but how he can be content to starve daily is beyond our comprehension.

A ten-story building will soon adorn the center of town, the vigilance committee having complained that the oak-tree limbs are too low to give convicted citizens sufficient swing.

The Safe Road.

"Politics make strange bedfellows, Br'er Williams."

"Well, what do de Bible tell you? W'en you see 'em comin' take up yo' bed, an' walk!"

A New Note in "Dixie."

I.

Ol' Dixie lan' won't be forgotten,
Fifteen cents for the farmer's cotton;
That's right!
An' light
Is breakin' now on Dixie!

II.

Ol' Wall Street wakes, with a look suprisin';
Got to climb where cotton's risin'!
That's right!
An' light
Is breakin' now on Dixie!

III.

It's a lesson plain, an' we're bound to teach it:
"Cotton's up an' you got to reach it!"
That's right!
An' light
Is breakin' now on Dixie!

Couldn't Cheer Him Up.

"Cheer up, man! You'll reach the rosy gardens by and by."

"But I don't like roses!"

"Well, then, you'll pull the biggest peach on the tree."

"Peaches don't agree with me!"

"Oh, well—in heaven we'll live on milk and honey."

"My friend," said the hopeless one, "that wouldn't be no change for me: I've got six bee-hives, an' four cows, givin' two gallons each day the Lord sends!"

Literary Note.

"What should I get for a novel of 70,000 words?" asked a correspondent.

Well, some magazine editors would give good six months for it—if they could.

Tribulation enough in the world, but after we pull all the roses we spend the rest of our days growling at the thorns.

The Crisp, Clear Days.

The crisp, clear days in Georgia—the whistle of "Bobwhite,"
Across the dewy meadows that are ringin' with delight;
And take yer place, Miss Mary,—the dancers are in line;
And don't forget yer promise: The next quadrille is mine!

Billville Literary Notes.

Mayor Jones is hard at work on a History of Billville, from the first lynching up to the time when the rope gave out.

Most of the Billville literary clubs are made of hickory, and they come in mighty handy in the editorial office.

It's mighty hard to keep the poets at the plow. They'd rather sing about the soil than guide the mule over it.

Georgia Philosophy.

When the old gorld seems merry enough to go to dancing, give it plenty of room.

Don't worry about the troubles to come, but save all your strength to meet 'em.

There has been nothing original in this sinful world since Jonah told the first fish story.

You can't ride into heaven in an automobile, but it can send you there quicker than any other conveyance.

"Thank the Lord!" exclaimed a pious editor, "the potato banks of Georgia will be equal to any run that may be made on them!"

If you can't sing the song of prosperity, just shout "Amen!" when the other fellow sings.

Let's All Sing.

Don't let sorrow
Stay with you too long:
Fix up the fire,
An' keep up the song!

All "Jims" Alike to Him.

In a Billville justice court a prisoner repeatedly addressed the bench as "Jim," occasionally varying it with, "Now, Jim, old boy," etc. Finally, the judge said:

"You must be more respectful in addressing the court. Say 'your honor.'"

"I'll be darned of I do!" replied the prisoner. "You an' me was raised together, an' of you has changed I'm not gwine to let you fill up as heavy as that! So, go on with your rallidittin'!"

"Respectfully Dedicated"
Come down my honey,
Mister Tarrapin, we do want
I sets de finest table
Dat ever you did see!

De knives an' forks is silver,
De plates is china fine;
Come down, I say you,
An' see dat honey o' mine!

Dat 'possum never could,
An' wink his eye anyway.
"Tain't my dat 'tar dinner tonight—
Go yo' ways, an' stay so!
